1. Introduction

- 1.1. Radnor House Sevenoaks (“the School”) is committed to ensuring the best possible environment for the pupils in its care. Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of pupils is our highest priority.
- 1.2. Employees involved in the recruitment and selection of staff are responsible for familiarising themselves with and complying with the provisions of this policy

2. The School aims to:

- 2.1. Ensure that thorough recruitment procedures and pre-employment vetting for appointing all staff, including volunteers and contractors, enables the School to deter, identify and reject any person deemed unsuitable to work or come into contact with our pupils; and,
- 2.2. Operate such procedures consistently and thoroughly while obtaining, collating, analysing, and evaluating information from and about applicants, as well as those potentially working with children.
- 2.3. It therefore seeks to ensure compliance with all current relevant legislation, recommendations and guidance including the statutory guidance published by the Department for Education (DfE), Keeping children safe in education (KCSIE) 2025, Disqualification under the Childcare Act 2006 (DUCA), the Prevent Duty Guidance for England and Wales (the Prevent Duty Guidance) and any guidance or code of practice published by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS).

3. Employment and Safer Recruitment

- 3.1. All members of the teaching and support staff at the School, including part-time staff, temporary and supply staff, contractors, volunteers and visiting staff, such as peripatetic musicians and sports coaches, are checked in accordance with the full requirements of the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and the centralised record (Single Central Register) before starting work.
- 3.2. The current required checks include identity, right to work in the UK, qualifications, medical fitness, employment history, enhanced DBS (including barred check), separate barred list check as appropriate, disqualification from childcare, prohibition from teaching and management as appropriate, overseas police as appropriate, references and a basic online search.

If the role is exempt, certain spent convictions and cautions are ‘protected’. This means they do not need to be disclosed, and if they are disclosed, they cannot be taken into account.

At least two people will carry out the shortlisting exercise, consider any inconsistencies, look for gaps in employment and reasons given for them and explore all potential concerns.

Self-declaration is subject to the Ministry of Justice guidance on the disclosure of criminal records. Applicants will be asked to sign a declaration confirming that the information they have provided is true. Where there is an electronic signature, the shortlisted candidate should physically sign a hard copy of the application at the point of interview.

  - 7.2.1. Not accept open references.
  - 7.2.2. Liaise directly with referees and verify any information contained within references with the referees.

This will include our evaluation of any risks and control measures put in place, and any advice sought.

17. Policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders

17.1. The School will not unfairly discriminate against any applicant for employment on the basis of conviction or other details revealed. The School makes appointment decisions on the basis of merit and ability.

17.2. If an applicant has a criminal record this will not automatically bar them from employment within the School. Instead, each case will be decided on its merits in accordance with the objective assessment criteria set out below.

17.3. All positions within the School are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. All applicants must declare all previous criminal convictions and/or cautions or bind-overs, including those prior to 18 years of age, or which would normally be considered "spent" except for those to which the DBS filtering rules apply. The candidate is not required to disclose convictions or cautions that are 'protected', as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020). A failure to disclose a previous conviction (which should be declared, including those spent, or in childhood) may lead to an application being rejected or, if the failure to disclose is discovered after employment has started, may lead to summary dismissal on the grounds of gross misconduct. A failure to disclose a previous conviction may also amount to a criminal offence.

17.4. It is unlawful for the School to employ anyone who is barred from working with children. It is a criminal offence for any person who is barred from working with children to attempt to apply for a position at the School. The School will make a report to the Police and/or the DBS if:

17.4.1. It receives an application from a barred person;

17.4.2. It is provided with false information in, or in support of, an applicant's application; or

17.4.3. It has serious concerns about an applicant's suitability to work with children.

17.5. In the event that relevant information (whether in relation to previous convictions or otherwise) is volunteered by an applicant during the recruitment process or obtained through a disclosure check, the School will consider the following factors before reaching a recruitment decision:

17.5.1. Whether the conviction or other matter revealed is relevant to the position in question;

17.5.2. The seriousness of any offence or other matter revealed;

17.5.3. The length of time since the offence or other matter occurred;

17.5.4. Whether the applicant has a pattern of offending behaviour or other relevant matters;

17.5.5. Whether the applicant's circumstances have changed since the offending behaviour or other relevant matters; and

17.5.6. The circumstances surrounding the offence and the explanation(s) offered by the applicant.

17.6. If the post involves regular contact with children, it is the School's normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of any of the following offences:

17.6.1. Murder, manslaughter, rape, other serious sexual offences, grievous bodily harm or other serious acts of violence; or

17.6.2. Serious class A drug-related offences, robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud.

17.6.3. If the post involves access to money or budget responsibility, it is the School's normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud.

17.6.4. If the post involves some driving responsibilities, it is the School's normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted of drink driving within the last ten years.

18. Single Central Register

18.1. The School maintains a Single Central Register (SCR) of staff appointments, including volunteers and others brought into the School to provide additional teaching or instruction (such as sports coaches), supply staff and governors in accordance with the guidance of the DfE.

18.2. The SCR is managed and only accessed by authorised staff in HR.

19. Retention of Records and Security of Disclosure Information

- 19.1. The School is legally required to undertake the above pre-employment checks. Therefore, if an applicant is successful in their application, the School will retain on his/her personnel file (paper and/or electronic) any relevant information provided as part of the application process. This will include copies of documents used to verify identity, right to work in the UK, medical fitness and qualifications.
- 19.2. Disclosure information and other confidential documents issued by the DBS are securely stored, with access only permitted to persons designated by the proprietor for this purpose. These are securely destroyed after a period of six months.
- 19.3. This documentation will be retained by the School for the duration of the successful applicant's employment with the School. It will be retained for a period of seven years (minimum) after employment terminates, after which time it will be securely destroyed.
- 19.4. If the application is unsuccessful, all documentation relating to the application will be confidentially destroyed after six months.
- 19.5. The School will keep a record of the date of disclosure, the name of the subject, the type of disclosure, the position in question, the unique number issued by the DBS and the recruitment decision taken, with access only permitted to persons designated by the proprietor for this purpose.

20. Duty to Refer

- 20.1. The School has a duty to refer to agencies as part of our safeguarding responsibility. Consequently, the School will refer to the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) when an individual has applied despite being barred from working with children or is removed from regulated activity or has resigned prior to being removed, because they have harmed, or pose a risk of harm to a child.
- 20.2. If the individual referred to the DBS is a teacher, the School may make a referral to the Teaching Regulation Agency (TRA) as and where appropriate.

21. Equal Opportunities

- 21.1. The School does not discriminate between candidates on the basis of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race (including colour, nationality, and ethnic or national origin), religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.
- 21.2. The School is mindful of the requirements relating to the recruitment of ex-offenders whilst taking into account its safeguarding responsibilities.

22. Training

- 22.1. HR and senior members of staff, including the Head, should have Safer Recruitment training. This training is refreshed every 3 years.
